As the scope and complexity of pharmacy services has increased in recent years, so too has the need for highly qualified and specialized Pharmacy Consultants. Interested parties should exercise due diligence in the selection of a consultant to assure that their specific needs will be met. Consultants may be the biggest asset a pharmacy business can have and should be an integral part of most pharmacy service in all settings.

About Us

Retail Pharmacy Consultants have expertise for the last two decades with servicing hundreds of retail pharmacies throughout the entire California market and are always available if you have questions regarding starting up your new retail pharmacy, mergers, partnerships, purchase contracts, escrow companies, buying, or selling of your pharmacy.
